School Walkways Need Expressed

Revised Moraga Plan Up For Debate Again Tuesday

By FRED HILL

With the plan commission's final hearing and decision on the 9,500-acre Moraga area set for Tuseday night, further objections to Utah Construction Company's request for additional controlled manufacturing acreage are expected.

The March 11 hearing found numerous objectors to Utah's proposal to add another 100 to 150 acres to the 188 acres already allocated by the planning staff to controlled manufacturing.

Among those who questioned the advisability of earmarking a large area for controlled manufacturing was Richard Bartle, chairman of the Orinda Association's planning committee.

Bartle stated: "We do not know how much controlled manufacturing area should be provided in Moraga. We do believe that reserving an unnecessarily large area for this use might lead to demands that the controls be relaxed in order to utilize the land for manufacturing.

OUR REQUEST IS that the planning commission give very careful study to the size of the controlled manufacturing area in order to avoid the consequences of assigning too much land to this use."

Other matters which the Orinda Association was concerned over, Bartle said, were:

1. "Development of Moraga in accordance with this plan would make improvement of access to the area absolutely essential. Particularly important is early construction by the county of the Moraga cutoff, the proposed road west of and parallel to Moraga Way."

2. "Portions of Orinda south of Hall Drive are included in the Moraga planning area, as well as in Orinda. The Moraga general plan shows high-density residential use in part of this area. The Association favors low-density for all single family areas in Orinda and hopes this overlapping will be restudied when the Orinda general plan is before the commission.

AMONG THOSE VOICING objections to proposals to increase the 188-acre controlled manufacturing area at the March 11 meeting was Thomas J. Twomey, assistant dean of St. Mary's College.

He said that the college administration considered the 188-acre area now in the plan "more than enough to take care of the population of the area and adjacent areas" now and in the future.

On the other side of the controlled manufacturing picture was Bestor Robinson, attorney for Utah, who claimed Utah "took a whipping" when the original master plan was adopted in April, 1955.

In an interview with The Sun this week, attorney Robinson said: "According to the books Moraga with its eventual population doesn't need more than the 188 acres now included in the plan."

However, he hastened to explain, the controlled manufacturing area in the Moraga vicinity will be highly sought after by industrialists who view the area as an ideal site, being located between employees' homes and the Oakland-San Leandro industrial area.

"OUR RESEARCH," Robinson said, "shows us that the average industry is seeking between 20 and 40 acres. At that rate, the 188 acres now provided for would be eaten up after the first seven or eight industries located there."

Because of the unusual location of the land, Robinson said, the land would be sought to serve Lafayette, Orinda and other areas as industrial territory.

"It is only logical," Robinson said, "to zone this land now, with an eye toward the future."

He said Utah is seeking an additional 100 to 150 acres to be earmarked for manufacturing. This, he said, could be done either by zoning it for controlled manufacturing, or by leaving it at its present agricultural designation, with the stipulation that zoning for residential or manufacting use be determined in the future.

Utah owns more than half the land under consideration in the massive Moraga plan. If Tuesday's hearing is the final one, zoning measures will be taken up at a later date.

Meanwhile, trouble for the master plan was brewing on another front as South Lafayette homeowners this week were marshalling forces in hopes of bringing about a massive protest Tuesday to the shopping area proposed for the Burton area.

THE GLENSIDE Improvement Association, one of the most vociferous of objectors to the proposed Burton Shopping Center, is seeking to get as many persons as possible to appear at the Planning Commission Tuesday to object to the center.

In other matters concerning the shopping center, representatives of the Buprton group and other objecting organizations scheduled a meeting Thursday in Martinez with planning commission members, Supervisor Melvin Nielsen and Bestor Robinson, Utah's attorney on the master plan.

Details of the Martinez meeting and the outcome of it were not known as press time. Purpose of the session, according to a Glenside representative, was to thrash out details of the Burton proposal prior to the Tuesday session.

Meanwhile, a "strategy committee" of the Glenside group and other improvement associations is to meet this evening to plan strategy in presenting objections to the shopping center at the Tuesday planning commission session.

REPRESENTATIVES of the Glenside Improvement Association, the Lafayette Improvement Association, and other groups from Burton Valley, Silverado and St. Mary's Estates met Sunday to discuss the shopping center matter.

At that time, all present were united in their stand against the inclusion of a Burton shopping center in the master plan. All agreed that there was no need for a shopping center there since most residents felt that their shopping could be done in Lafayette or at Rheem Center.

The Sunday meeting ended on the note that a telephone network should be set up in efforts to rally forces for a mass protest at the coming planning session. More than 245 signatures were included on a protest petition presented to the plan commission at the last Moraga plan session March 11. Since then, approximately 100 more signers have added their voices to the movement.

ON MARCH 11, the petition from the Glenside group noted that the 245 signatures represented "a clear-cut majority of the residents of the area—and does not include the other surrounding areas of Lafayette Valley Estates, St. Mary's Estates, and Silverado communities . . ."

The petition noted that objectors within a mile and a quarter of the site have joined in the negative reaction.

Some of the reasons cited for the objection were danger to children from increased traffic; disadvantages due to traffic, dirt, noise, bright lights; the existence of other nearby shopping areas; the lack of a buffer zone between the shopping center and existing homes; and the feeling that property values would be adversely affected.

Earlier, at a prior session on the Moraga plan,, William Zion, president of the Lafayette Improvement Association, had suggested transferring the Burton area from the Moraga plan to a Lafayette plan.

IN HIS MARCH 3 letter to the plan commission, Zion noted that his organization in February had decided to request such a change if residents in the area agreed with the plan. Reasons for the proposal, Zion said, were that his association feels the Burton area is a part of the Lafayette, rather than the Moraga community, and that most of the growth of Lafayette will be in the Burton area.

Congregation OKs Community Church Building

Sunday evening, March 9, the congregation of the Orinda Community Church voted approval of the preliminary plans for the new church sanctuary, the building to start early this spring.

The plans were presented by the Architect Jack Hermann, of the architectural firm of Bolton White & Jack Hermann of San Francisco, and further explanation was given by Everett Howe, Chairman of the Church Building Committee.

Other members of the Committee include: Mrs. William Brobeck, Miss Anne Hazen, Mrs. Arnold Anderson, Dr. Paul Winquist, Messrs. Arthur Weatherbe, Albion Harmon and Charles Nelson.

The proposed structure will seat 420 people and will have facilities so that on special occasions additional seating will provide for a total of 550.

Additional church school space will be provided including six classrooms, a large all-purpose room, a choir room and robing rooms, and increased facilities for janitorial services. There will be an enlarged parking area to provide parking for 300 cars.

This is the first step in a master plan which ultimately includes a new and much larger Fellowship Hall and more classrooms. The total cost of this new sanctuary, classrooms and parking to be done this year is approximately $320,000.00.

Rudy Monosmith, Moderator of the Church, presided at the meeting. Plans of the new sanctuary and of the master plan are on display at the church.

Women's Club Gives $605 To Library

The Orinda Library Building Fund, represented by Perc Brown, received Saturday a check of $605 from the Orinda Woman's Club. Presentation was made at the library site by Mrs. John Madison, Library Chairman and Mrs. John Barkley, Treasurer. The check culminated four years of planning, working, and fund raising by the woman's club to assist Orinda in having a suitable library building.

In March, 1954, the club pledged to back the Orinda Library project with the help of the community and the Orinda Lion's Club. A joint rummage sale was held, proceeds going to the library group for initial office expenses. Some of the money was used to build and install additional book shelves in the present library.

In the spring of 1956, the Orinda Woman's Club presented to the Library Board a $1000 check. This kicked off the library's first fund-raising drive. The women devoted hundreds of hours to addressing brochures, handling pledge cards, soliciting for the library and then billing. Volunteer groups worked at club worknights or in individual work groups at various member's homes.

In November, 1956, the club advised the Library Board that the sum of $453 would be given the library to be used for the cabinet of the record-lenidng facilities. A rummage sale was held in October 1957, by the Orinda Library Building Fund staff and the Orinda Woman's Club. Proceeds were used to cover corporation and office expenses.

In the January, 1958 fund drive the 75 members of the club volunteered 100% to assist in the last big push to make the project a reality. From the proceeds of the February "Hearts and Fashions Ball" $605 will be presented to the Orinda Library Building Fund. This check included a $35 prize award presented to the club for community achievement by the General Federation of Woman's Clubs.

The Orinda Woman's Club is now entered in the Federation Community Achievement Contest, sponsored by Sears Roebuck. If a monetary award is received, the club will turn it over to the library, since it will be given on the basis of the work the club has done toward successfully assisting the community in achieving it's own library.

Parent's Club Meeting Set

Orinda School parents will meet Wednesday, April 9, at 7:45 p.m. in the Orinda School auditorium to discuss organizational plans by-laws for the school Parent's Club.

Parents of children in the school voted this month to organize as a Parent's Club electing that form of organization over the Parent-Teachers form of organization.

Parents at the April 9 session will be Mrs. Charles Hanks, coordinator, and Mrs. Leonard Roth, room mother chairman. By-laws for the new organization will be presented for approval.

Announcement of the Parent's Club meeting was made this week by Wiliam G. Gaskell, Orinda School principal, in the first school newsletter sponsored jointly by the Parent's Club and the school.

He urged a large turnout of parents for the April 9 club meeting.

Public Invited to Hear U.S. Chamber Man Speak

On April 9, members of other civil organizations and the general public are invited to the Orinda Rotary Club's meeting at The Willows when a representative of the United States Chamber of Commerce will speak.

Stan Allen, who suggested making the regular meeting a community affair, is in charge of ticket sales. A special welcome is being sent out to members of the Chamber of Commerce.

At the Orinda Chamber's noon meeting Tuesday, Postmistress Laura Mallory showed a film on the Postal Department titled "Men, Mail and Machines."

She prefaced the film with a brief talk and explained that the U. S. Postal Department handles two-thirds of the mail sent in the world. Objective of the local post office, she said, is to see that all local mail is delivered in one day.

"The film," Mrs. Mallory said, "shows what the Post Office is doing to mechanize an antiquated system." She was assisted at the meeting by Jim Doyle, who assists her at the local post office.

In other business before the Chamber Tuesday, John Ogden, member of the parking committee, asked each member to put on paper what might be done to aid in relieving the parking problem, particularly at the crossroads.

Members discussed clarification of the function of the newly-formed steering committee. Ramsay Underwood suggested that the committee should merely screen requests and bring them up at regular Chamber meetings.

Clarence Betz explained that the power of the Chamber remains with the directors and that the steering committee only screens matters and turns pertinant ones over to the directors for action.

President Maynard Buehler suggested that only specific problems be referred to the committee and that the committee should refer directly back to the president on every item.

Orinda Deputy Vote Registrars Are Announced

Registration of voters is proceeding in Contra Costa County at 350 deputy locations by registration deputies appointed by Walter T. Paasch, county clerk.

Registration closes '.. days prior to each election. The School Governing Board Elections scheduled for Tuesday, May 20, close March 27. The Primary Election scheduled for Tuesday, June 3, closes April 10. Paasch pointed out since there are an average of 80 special elections each year in various areas of the county that it is important to be properly and currently registered.

Residence requirements are one year in the state and 90 days in the county. To be eligible to vote one must be registered from a current address. Failure to vote at both the last primary and general elections in 1956 would have caused a cancellation of a registration.

A mailing address change done by the post office does not require a re-registration if the county clerk is notified. Any change of residence between precincts requires a re-registration or even in the same precinct in order to receive mailed notices.

Potentiol voters in the county are urged to appear before a registration deputy as soon as possible in their residence area. Deputies by area are:

Moraga: Mrs. Helene Hefield, Moraga; Moraga Fire Station; Harold Parker.

Orinda: Sally Ammen Booth, 207 Crest View Drive; Mrs. Helen W. Drews, 166 Canyon Drive; Jane E. Jones, 2 Orchard Court; Harold V. Manor, 7 Charles Hill Road; Orinda Fire Stations 1, 2 and 3; Ernest T. Rahmeyer, 49 La Cuesta Road; Mrs. Barbara J. Wulfert, 62 Rheem Boulevard; Marcia J. Zacharias, 257 La Espiral.

St. Mary's: Herbert A. McDevitt, St. Mary's College.

Orinda Library Fund Reaches $100,000 Mark

The Orinda Library Building Fund this week reached the $101,000 mark, according to Perc S. Brown, general chairman of the building fund.

Brown acknowledged a recent contribution, for $605, from the Orinda Women's Club. The donation represented proceeds from a fashion ball staged recently by the club. Brown noted that the $1,000 contribution from the club in 1956 was the first donation of any kind received by the fund.

He added, "The Women's club, from the inception of the idea of creating a good library in Orinda, has been strongly behind the project. It is also the only Orinda organization presently on the small but growing list of Sponsors, though we expect to be able soon to announce the addition of another prominent Orinda organization."

The Women's Club, Brown said, ". . . has consistently helped us with volunter personnel and . . . has also pledged to underwrite the cost of installation of a record-listening library."

In citing other additions to the list of Sponsors, Brown mentioned Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Pearson, 629 Minert Road.

"The Pearsons," he said, "made a major contribution to the fund in each of two years. The sums so contributed were reflected in fund totals reported at various times in the past. Feeling the Pearsons would not let me make the following statement if they had prior knowledge of it, I purposely did not say anything to them about it. We wish to pay sincere tribute, publicly, to the Pearsons for their early recognition of, and their intense interest in, Orinda's desire and need for a good library."

Another recent Sponsor, Brown added, was the Haws Drinking Faucet Company which will give a drinking fountain, including cost of installation, to the library. The owners of the firm reside in Orinda.

Brown also acknowledged assistance given early in the fund-raising job by the Orinda Lions Club, Orinda Rotarians, and the Orinda Chamber of Commerce.

Brown concluded, "National Library Week is an eminently appropriate time for some of us to make our first, and for many of us to make another, contribution to the building fund. This fund will create a lasting community asset. When the goal is reached necessity for annual fund-raising ceases. Time is getting short. We are unable to make many necessary calls.

"If you wish and intend to be a part of this community project your voluntary contribution sent in now to the building fund will assist greatly in raising necessary funds. Once this money-raising job can be completed, needed time and effort will be released for getting the library built, properly equipped, dedicated, and opened for community use.

"We take the liberty of paraphrasing the National Library Week slogan 'Wake Up and Read' to 'Wake Up and Contribute to your library'."

Mothers' Club Reviews School Library Program

As apart of the nationwide celebration of National Library Week, the Orinda Mothers' Club this week reviewed work done by mothers in developing Orinda's extensive school library program.

Mrs. M. A. Hall this week released the following statement concerning the library program:

"Interest in the education of our children has long been the concern of a group of hard-working mothers in the Orinda School District. With the cooperation of the school administration they have developed and maintained a school library program which is the envy of many surrounding school districts.

"THROUGH THE EFFORTS of this group, working in the Orinda Mothers Club, four schools in the Orinda district are staffed daily by trained volunteers, whose primary job is to interest the children in books of all kinds, and to provide reading guidance to these children. To do an effective job they must know how to work with children, and must have a real interest in books.

"Our schools are constantly before the eyes of the public these days. It has been stated many times that the key to all learning is the ability to read easily and comprehend readily. This cannot be accomplished without the availability of a variety of interest and helpful books, and equally important, the proper use of such books.

"A child who learns how to use the school library well at an early age grows up into an adult who knows the value of a good public library system. How well this is being accomplished in Orinda can be judged by a visit to any of the school libraries during the school day.

"THE DISTRICT LIBRARY program involves approximately 100 volunteer mothers. The program this year is functioning under the general chairmanship of Mrs. A. Yedidia, who is responsible for the coordination of the efforts of the individual school library heads. For the past 3½ years this work has been made more meaningful through the expert guidance of the district librarian, Mrs. Alice Frederick.

"The key people in each school are the staffing mothers and the individual library chairmen. This year a most effective and successful program is in operation under their enthusiastic leadership.

"The following mothers make up this Library Steering Committee: Mrs. A. Yedidia, general chairman; Mrs. Victor Kingston, Glorietta School; Mrs. John Gilbert, Orinda School; Mrs. Edwin Byer, Sleepy Hollow School; Mrs. Edward Law, Rel Rey School.

"ACCORDING TO MRS. FREDERICK, since the libraries were established approximately 12,800 books have been processed for them. With these books divided among five schools, it can readily be seen that though the collections are growing they have yet to reach the recommended five titles per student to give the student adequate choice of materials.

"This total of books to date does not make allowance for books that have been worn out and discarded. More books are being added this school year from both the District and Mother's Club funds.

"School libraries believe in giving the student as wide an experience with books and library situations as possible not only for the immediate benefit but that they will be lifelong users and friends of the public library."

William Polk Named Central Bank Manager

The appointment of William A. Polk as Manager of the new Orinda office, Central Valley National Bank, was announced today by Charles P. Partridge, chairman of the board and president. It is planned that this new office, located at 21 Moraga Highway, opposite the Orinda Theater, will open for business the end of this month.

Polk resides, with his wife, at 683 Glen Mawr Avenue, El Cerrito, and has been in banking for over twenty years. He was formerly president of the Los Angeles Chapter, American Institute of Banking, and was chairman of the National Public Speaking Committee for the Institute.

Calvin S. Partridge, son of the bank's president, will change from the Oakland head office to become assistant cashier of the Orinda office and shortly will move, with his wife and four children, to Orinda.

Color Slide Program Set By Shipmates

The Shipmate Club of the Orinda Community Church will present a program of color slides, with narration by the photographer, on Friday, March 28th, at 8 p.m. at the church.

The slides are those taken by Ed Nelson, crew of a pilot boat which escorts ships into San Francisco through the Golden Gate bridge. Nelson's photos won him numerous national awards and resulted in his being in demand for many programs.

Nelson died recently but his slides have been assembled into a program by his wife and a tape-recorded narration has been added.

The program is open to the public. Admission is 50 cents and reservations may be made by calling John Saunders, CL 4-2880.

Heads Committee

A committee headed by Mrs. E. M. Barker of Orinda is planning a full schedule of activities for the ladies of mining men who will participate in the Pacific Southwest Industry Conference at the St. Francis Hotel during the last week in March.

Fire Chief Says Accident Rate Is Criterion

A proposal for walkways in the vicinity of schools and a report on a modification of the church-association land trade were the main items under discussion at Monday's meeting of the Orinda Association Civic Affairs Committee.

Bill Koch, of the fire district, reported that walkways near Orinda schools appear warranted because of the accident rate involving children walking and riding bicycles in the streets.

A survey of the year's fire call reports, he explained, showed that the department answered more calls involving accident reports than calls involving fires.

Of the accidents, Koch said, 62 per cent occured on Orinda Highway between Moraga Way and Miner Road.

HE SAID THAT he believes walkways should be built on both sides of the highway from Moraga Way to Miner Road. The walkways, or pedestrian and bike paths, he said, could be built relatively inexpensively of quarry waste.

He noted that he had made a study of 384 children, ages 10 to 16, and that of these 376 had bicycles and no place to ride them except in the streets.

He said that the walkway project, for Orinda and Pine Grove Schools, would be a worthwhile undertaking for parents and be a great safety measure for children. Koch stated that he believed the county would construct the walkways and the expense would be reflected in taxes.

Koch also suggested the advisability of similar walkways in the Glorietta School area between Roberts Road and Moraga Via and between Tara Road and Overhill. These he said could be built at the cost of about $10 per family living in the area.

IN OTHER BUSINESS, Dr. Ralph Hall reported that a pending agreement on the land trade with Orinda Community Church will probably change the arrangements concerning the building of an access road across the property which the association will acquire the trade.

In the original agreement between the church and East Bay M.U.D., Dr. Hall said, the church was bound to build, within five years, an access road of county standards on the property being traded to Orinda Association.

At present, Dr. Hall explained, E.B.M.U.D. has stated the willingness to release the church from this agreement and to allow the association to build a substandard road or "pathway" on the property at any time. The agreement has vet to be finalized, he explained, but the difference under the new agreement would be that the association, and not the church, would be responsible for constructing the access road.

UNDER THE ORIGINAL agreement, the standard road provided for would have cost the church an estimated $25,000, Dr. Hall said. He explained that the new agreement would allow the association to put it a much less expensive access way.

Mrs. Edith Erickson reported on nature areas near the Orinda Schools and said that while all the schools have beautiful areas, all of the areas except the one at Glorietta need improvement.

She said she honed to organize a work Sunday for the purpose of improving some of the areas and requested that volunteer workers contact her.

Letter to The Editor

SOME QUESTIONS

Dear Editor:

I have just finished reading your March 14 editorial conerning the schools vote - - - or should I say "Anti-Schools vote"? I am one of the people who did not vote, not because of intention but because I automatically went to my regular polling place which of course was the wrong direction, and did not have time to go to the proper place. I'll be honest - - - I would have voted "Anti".

Regardless of the reasons people may give for voting against this issue, I find it hard to believe there is any other reason than simply ALL Americans are sick of tax increases. I'm sure no one is actually against giving our children the best education possible, but perhaps many of them are wondering where the additional taxes of the past few years are being used. We all know our taxes have been doubled in the past five years, and in my own inexcusable ignorance I cannot see where there has been any obvious benefits - - -at least in this area. True, Orinda had a wonderful improvement in the cross-roads overpass, a current improvement (questionable) in the Dam Road freeway, but aren't these items paid for out of the State Gasoline Tax budget?

In other words, what I'm getting at is this:

1. Our proposed library is evidently being financed by private funds.
2. Our fire department? (I don't know).
3. I've seen no more Sheriff's Office cars cruising now than I did three years ago, altho they are Johnny-on-the -spot when you want them.
4. Where have our taxes been spent other than to add personnel to the Assayer's office so they can re-evaluate property for further possible tax increases?

As the editor of our local and very excellent news medium, why don't you accept a huge burden on your shoulders and educate us as to just what has happened and is happening to these tax dollars we are already contributing? You might start by gathering the following information:

1. How many tax dollars received each year from 1953 until the present year? (each year).
2. How has the county used these dollars?
   a. Expense-wise
   b. Construction or other capital investment-wise
3. Proportionately, how has this income been spent area-wise within the county?
4. Approximately, how many children in our schools are from families who do not pay taxes here?

The above are of course only a few items that many of us would like to have explored - - - but if the answers were available and realistic perhaps we wouldn't be so quick to be voting on the "Anti" side of issues that call for more money from us. And maybe we would be quicker.

Miramonte Mirror

By SALLE DeWITT

The total in the Miramonte student body treasury to date is $43.27. This money must last until the end of the year. The question is WILL IT? Suggested answers have been a car wash, a carnival, movies at noon, student-faculty basketball game.

Saturday, March 15, approximately ninety juniors at Miramonte along with many other students, took the College Board Tests at U.C. It was a grueling day for those who took the afternoon test as well as the compulsory morning English and math tests.

Miramonte's first long play, "The Defiance of David Charles" will be presented Friday, April 25, at 8 p.m. Tryouts were held the week of Feb. 23-27. Miss Jacobsen, the faculty advisor, remarked, "The play shows the trouble resulting from parents putting too much pressure on students to live up to the difficult scholastic ideals."

On March 14, Freddy Agabashian, racing driver and veteran of the "Indianapolis 500," spoke at an assembly on "Highway Safety." He pointed out how much more careful a professional driver is on the highway than an amateur.

The basketball season has closed; and, as it happens, many sports are beginning. Baseball, track, golf and tennis are in full swing. This week the baseball team will play Amador at Pleasanton, the track team will tangle with Amador and John Swett at Martinez.

Friday, March 7, the Wheel Club, sponsored by the Rotary Club, held a free dance for all student body card holders.

Five girls, Babette Ambler, Vicky Adams, Julia Hendrickson, Kathy White, and Sandy Brown, went to S.F. State High School G.A.A. playday March 8. The day was full, with volleyball, badminton, swimming, and basketball.

'Teacher Beating' Students' Fate Lies with Board

The fate of four students at Pleasant Hill High School, who led in the attack of a teacher March 13, lies in the hands of the Mt. Diablo Unified School District Board of Trustees.

The trustees will receive the recommendations of James Dent, superintendent of the district, and Arthur Bloom, principal of Pleasant Hill High, that the four boys be expelled from school.

THE FOUR STUDENTS have been suspended from school and parents have been notified that the trustees will act on the matter at the regular school board meeting in the administrative offices of the district Tuesday night.

Eugene R. Goselin, a biology teacher, who came to the district some seven weeks ago, received minor bruises when he was jumped on the school grounds by between 30 and 40 students.

Goselin was patrolling the student parking lot when he saw a boy who was apparently smoking.

GOSELIN ASKED the boy to follow him to the administrative office of the school.

Goselin had taken two other students the day before to the office for smoking. While Goselin was walking with the lad, other students began to shout and make remarks at the 27-year-old teacher.

On the way to the office, Goselin learned the boy had only been pretending that he was smoking and told him to return to his group.

Goselin stated, however, that the boy became cocky and arrogant and when the teacher put his hand on the boy's arm, the 17-year-old hit him in the head.

THE TEACHER and student exchanged blows and the teacher claimed that another boy grabbed his arms and held him while the other students beat him.

Lee Armstrong, another teacher, broke up the hassle and prevented, what Goselin termed "could have been a student riot."

Bloom has backed Goselin as being "absolutely right" in the matter and that he has asked for the expulsion of the students.

"This is the first time in 17 years of teaching that I have asked for the expulsion of any student, but in this case there is no other choice," Bloom said.

'Deviate' Study Undertaken by Diablo PTA Group

The Mt. Diablo Council of the Parent Teachers Association has for several months been conducting a study of the problem of child molestation and sexual deviates who are a threat to the children, PTA committeemen admit.

However, committeemen add that their work has been confidential thus far, to avoid the obvious disadvantages of not being able to consider the matter in a calm, organized manner.

Mostly, they have been afraid that they will be bombarded day and night with calls from parents, "legal people" and even deviates themselves.

The study has been underway for six months. The council members have heard talks on child molestation by District Attorney Francis Collins, and earlier by Deputy District Attorney Leyton Hatch. Council members expressed dissatisfaction each time with the way in which child molesters are prosecuted.

Curriculum Committee Meeting Set

At the regular monthly meeting of the Orinda Parents' Curriculum Committee at Pine Grove School at 8 p.m. on March 25, parents will hear a talk by the Orinda school librarian, Mrs. Alice Frederick.

Mrs. Frederick will present her views on the role of the library in the elementary schools.

Also, the committee will examine the possibilities of foreign language study in the elementary grades. Experiments in neighboring school systems will be studied. The group's attention will be focused on the sixth grade and below.

Cuts in Buses, Teachers Set for Acalanes District

After an extensive review of the 1958-59 school budget in light of the "No" vote registered on the Acalanes High School District tax limit election February 25, Acalanes District trustees today announced anticipated cuts next year in bus service, the number of teachers per pupil and changes in the school lunch program.

Trustees added that "this curtailment will be even more severe for the following school year 1959-60 if additional revenue does not become available."

In their statement announcing cuts for the next school year, trustees reported:

"On the basis of figures available today, certain cuts will have to be instituted for the next school year. After some study and analysis, it now appears that transportation services will be curtailed beginning next fall, that cafeteria services must be entirely self-sustaining and to this end, cafeteria service and prices will be reviewed.

"There will be an increase of the pupil-teacher ratio (more pupils per teacher), and additional cuts will be made in other areas of the budget as necessary."

In other action trustees:

1. Adopted a school calendar for next years, approximately the same as this year's.
2. Accepted construction of music and classrooms at Las Lomas
3. Approved grading plans for the Tice Valley high school site and authorized a call for grading bids; a call for bids to enlarge the Las Lomas library; agreed to auditing services for 1957-58; and resolved to satisfy requirements for a State loan on the Rheem site, stating that the district expects to build on that site not later than within five years.

Commuters Seek Supreme Court Ruling on Buses

President Vic Kingston of the Contra Costa County Commuters Association this week announced that lawyers representing his organization and the counties of Contra Costa and Marin have filed a brief with the U.S. Supreme Court to protest the proposed operation of local commute lines by Golden Gate Transit Lines, a Greyhound subsidiary.

The brief was filed, Kingston said, by Avakian and Johnson. The Greyhound brief is due to be filed early next month and a Supreme Court decision is anticipated in May, Kingston said.

The Commuters Association board also endorsed the recent resolution of the board of supervisors protesting the proposed purchase of the Key System lines by the Alameda-Contra Costa County Transit District

Richard Tiedeman, candidate for judge in the Walnut Creek Judicial District, made the motion, stating that sucha move would increase the tax burden of residents of the area without assurance of improved commuter facilities

The board designated director Albert Fuller as its representative to meet with the Orinda Association and the Orinda Chamber of Commerce to discuss the possibility of improved parking facilities for commuters in that area.

The next meeting will be on April 8 at 8 p.m. in room 206 at Acalanes High School.

THE BEAUTY OF these camellias and thousands of others attracted many people to Walnut Creek Saturday and Sunday, when the annual Camellia Show was held. Charter Government Unit To Question Administrator

Desmond Teeter, county administrator, will speak at the Wednesday night meeting of the Organization To Study County Government at the Central Contra Costa Sanitary District headquarters in Walnut Creek.

The meeting will be open to questions concerning the possibility of establish a "charter-type" county government.

A REPORT on the Marin County system of charter government will be presented by Jack Ralls, according to Alvin A. Burton, chairman pro-tem.

A report on the advantages of a county charter was mailed to committee members early in the week by Harry L. Morrison, exeecutive director of the Contra Costa County Taxpayers Association.

"The primary advantage of a county charter is that it permits the Board of Supervisors to exercise increased authority over that allowed the Board in a general law county. This would come about both because of increased organizational authority over the internal structure of the county and by the fact that the Board of Supervisors under any charter would no longer be constrained to take no action except that which was expressly allowed the Board by state general law," the Morrison report claims.

"A charter properly drawn would allow for a clear separation between policy making and administrative authorities — that is, the Board of Supervisors could be named as the chief policy-making organ within the county goernment and restricted from taking any part in administraton.

"A charter would allow the Board of Supervsors to gain greater control over the operations of special districts than is politically and practically possible under a general law status," the report continues.

"A COUNTY CHARTER would allow the elimination of certain offices on longer required in our present society. As a prime example, I would suggest the office of constable which was originally established in a rural society to give some police protection to unincorporated communities. With the growth of technology and the use of modern communications the office of constable is merely a vestige of earlier requirements," Morrison points out.

"A county charter would allow the centralization of management authority in one office—the county manager—and make responsible one man who would have to answer for the administration of the county's total program under the policy as set forth by the Board of Supervisors.

"A county charter would allow for re-alignment of present county functions and a streamlining of departments so that the services required of the county could be administered in a more efficient manner.

"Finally, the advantage of a county charter is that it can be changed from time to time to fit the specific conditions of Contra Costa County. Under the Constitution of the State of California, laws which apply to counties must be uniform in nature throughout the state and consequently legislation needed by Contra Costa often cannot be enacted into law because such action may be harmful to some other county in the state," the report concludes.

Teeter To Retire As Administrator; M'Brien Succeeds

Desmond M. Teeter, county administrator of Contra Costa County, will retire from 30 years of service to the county when he reaches 65 later this year.

The Contra Costa Board of Supervisors announced that Joseph P. McBrien, field representative of the Public Administration Service of Chicago, would be Teeter's successor.

Teeter was assistant county auditor for seven years and auditor for 16 years before becoming administrator.

He has held office in the California Administrators Association. Governor Warren named him to an advisory committee on the problem of tax-deeded land and was appointed by Thomas H. Kuchel, then state controller, to act as chairman of a coordinating committee with local government."

Teeter lives at 5807 Charles Avenue, El Cerrio.

Cancer Drive To Be Launched Wednesday Eve

The 1958 Cancer campaign will be launched Wednesday, at 8 p.m. at the headquarters of the Contra Costa County Branch of the American Cancer Society, 2030 North Main, Walnut Creek.

The Board of Directors has issued invitations to area campaign chairmen, committee members and volunteers participating in the April educational and fund raising drive to meet with them for the formal opening of the 1958 campaign.

Keynote speaker for the kick-off event will be Thomas P. Pike, 1958 California State Campaign Los Angeles. He was assistant secretary of Defense from 1953 to 1956 and in 1952 acted as Special Assistant to President Eisenhower.

As state campaign chairman, Pike travels throughout the state assisting volunteers with plans for the 1958 drive in an effort to raise $2,526,000 as California's quota.

The goal for the Contra Costa County campaign has been set at $55,715, which is $3,000 more than was raised last year in what was termed "a most successful campaign."

Guy Spences, Contra Costa County campaign chairman announced that 77 campaign chairmen have been appointed with responsibilities for local sections of the County.

"This is the best organization the Cancer Society has ever had for a drive and should result in excellent returns not only moneywise, but in the distribution of important facts about cancer to residents in the county," he said.

Dr. Fred A. Pellegrin of Walnut Creek, vice president of the Contra Costa County Branch American Cancer Society, will also speak at the kick-off meeting.

Editor to Speak

Brian Taylor, real estate editor of the San Francisco Examiner will speak Monday at the breakfast meeting of the Contra Costa County Real Estate Board. The breakfast will be at the El Nido Rancho, Lafayette.

The Navy icebreaker USS Glacier has crashed through ice up to 25 feet thick at McMurdo Sound, Antarctica.

Transit Directors Touring Eastern Cities for Ideas

Five of the seven directors of the Alameda Contra Costa Transit District are touring several eastern and Canadian cities to inspect transit facilities.

The directors left Sunday and are scheduled to return Sunday night. The directors on the trip are Robert Barber, president; Clair W. MacLead, J. Howard Arnold, John L. McDonnell and Paul E. Deadrich. With the directors is George Taylor, administrative officer.

WILLIAM BETTENCOURT and Robert Copeland, directors, did not go on the trip.

While the directors are in the east, Key System has announced that it will cease train operations on the Oakland-San Francisco Bay Bridge April 20 and will substitute bustransportation. The announcement was made jointly with the Public Utilities Commission.

According to the announcement, Key will put 21 new diesel buses into service as a replacement for the trains.

But, as Key and the PUC made their announcement, State Senator George Miller Jr. (D-Martinez), moved to block the immediate conversion of the Bay Bridge to all-vehicular traffic.

MILLER INFORMED The Sun that although some Alameda County legislartors are in favor of the immediate reconstruction of the bridge at the cost of $35 million, he felt that most San Francisco and Contra Costa legislators would support his move to halt the reconstruction for "the time being."

Yet, the first move to block the removal of the train tracks on the bridge met defeat before the Bay Area Rapid Transit Commission.

A motion asking for delay was defeated there with one Contra Costa member, Harry Morrison, and two San Francisco members voting in favor of the motion. Eleven other directors opposed the measure.

THE BAY AREA Rapid Transit Commission after defeating the motion of delay, heard that all the Bay Area's problems, as far as transbay transit is concerned, can be solved for "only" $115 million.

Proponents of the transbay plan of the Rapid Transit Commission stated that with $35 million for bridge reconstruction with one deck carrying east bound traffic and the other deck carrying west bound, plus the construction of an $80 million tube for rapid transit would more than take care of the transbay transit problem.

Chairmen of Cancer Drive Seek Helpers

Plans are underway for the 1958 Cancer campaign to be conducted in April throughout the County, according to Guy Spencer, Contra Costa County chairman.

Spencer has named Central Contra Costa County area chairmen who will lead volunteers in local communities. Throughout the county, he said, there will be some 7000 volunteers participating in the fund raising and educational campaign for the benefit of the American Cancer Society.

Mrs. J. G. McCormack, 141 Lombardy Lane, has accepted the chairmanship of Orinda. She will have the responsibility of recruiting over 200 volunteers to contact residents in some 3000 homes.

MRS. McCORMACK said in accepting the position: "I am happy to have an opportunity to assist in this worthwhile effort. Orinda consistently sets the pace in this campaign and we hope to match last year's effort." Last year's total was $4314 to top the campaign quota.

She plans to recruit 20 captains this week who, in turn, will solicit the aid of volunteer workers for a door-to-door campaign in April.

Lafayette chairman is Mrs. Leroy W. Sowers. A Lafayette resident since 1940, Mrs. Sowers has been active in local theater groups for a number of years and assisted in the 1957 Cancer campaign. She resides at 950 Foye with her husband and son.

She is making plans to recruit 25 captains to recruit over 300 volunteers. In 1957, under the direction of Mrs. Julian Stern, the Lafayette area contributed a record $4153 to the Cancer drive, an amount almost double that of the previous year.

"NOW THAT scientists feel that they are on the threshold of important discoveries in the battle against cancer, we must redouble our efforts to provide funds for important research in this field," Mrs. Sowers said, urging those interested to volunteer their services. She asked volunteers to call her.

Leader of the Walnut Creek campaign is Mrs. Robert A. Fugazi, 31 Park Land Drive. In her capacity as chairman, she will need the help of over 600 volunteers, including 38 captains. The 1957 chairman was Mrs. Ernest Marchi and a total of $6433 was tallied for the Cancer Society.

The chairman, wife of Contra Costa County deputy district attorney, Robert A. Fugazi, is the mother of three children. She is project chairman for the Flicker Unit of the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center, treasurer of Pleasant Hill Elementary School PTA, and a member of the American Association of University Women.

SF Ballet is At Las Lomas This Sunday

The San Francisco Ballet, one of the most celebrated of America's classic ballet companies, will be presented by the Central Contra Costa Youth Concerts, at Las Lomas High School, Walnut Creek, Sunday at 2:30 p.m.

This is the last concert of the 1957-58 series.

For the benefit of the young people in the audience, there will be a demonstration as well as a ballet performance.

The dancers in the demonstration will be Christine Bering, Fione Fuerstner, Roderick Drew and Michael Smuin. Leon Kalimos, managing director of the ballet, will do the commentating for the demonstration.

The San Francisco Ballet will then do "Ballentino" which is done in three parts, "Allegro," "Andante" and "Allgero." The Music will be "Concerto in B minor for Piano."

Many of the audience will be familiar with the beautiful "Nutcracker Suite." It is made up of a selection of variations from Act II of Tchaikowsky's full length ballet "The Nutcracker."

There will be no tickets at the door. Newell Avenue entrances may be used and cars may park in Capwell's lot to ease parking facilities at the high school.

Heart Group Will Begin New Program

A new program to help heart patients in their return to a normal life was initiated by the Contra Costa County Heart Association this week.

Dr. Marvin Epstein, chairman of the Rehabiliation Committee, announced that the first patients were evaluated this week by a Work Evaluation Unit established by the Heart Association.

Function of the unit is to study cardiacs, referred by their physicians, to determine and make recommendations regarding type of employment and activity suitable for the patients.

HERETOFORE, this service has been provided by the Contra Costa County Heart Association through an arrangement with the Alameda County Association.

"Because of the increasing numbers of people employed in industry in this county it has, for some time, seemed feasible to establish a Work Evaluation Unit here in Contra Costa County," Dr. Epstein said.

The Work Evaluation Unit is composed of three physicians, a social worker and vocational counselor. This team confers with the cardiac to determine desirability of work for the patient, type of work, the time of day most suitable, positions at which he can work and the amount of standing, walking and lifting he can perform.

In addition, he is given suggestions as to places where he may turn for employment assistance.

Advertising Panel Will Head Program

A program for the Womens Division of Real Estate luncheon on Wednesday at the El Nido will consist of discussions on classified advertising.

On the Panel will be William Pickett, Adv. Manager of the S.F. Chronicle; Fred Dunster, Oakand Tribune; Herman Silverman, The Sun Newspapers; Lyman Stoddard, The Kernel; Ralph Bears of the S. F. Examiner; Keith Eminiger, Contra Costa Times.

Suburbia Scribblings

By MARIE MONAHAN

One of our most civic-minded citizens looked around the room at a recent meeting and came up with the cutely-astute observation—"There are two kinds of people in Orinda—Those who go to meetings . . . and those who see all the good television shows!"

WRONG MEETING . . . One lady called another to see if she was going to the Mothers' Tea at Acalanes. Other mother who remembered SOMETHING in the mails about a tea, said Yes, she'd love to, RUSHED through her errands and activities and hot-footed it out to the high school function mid-afternoon. Where she almost dropped her teacups! Party was for the GIRLS' mothers and HER Acalanes student is a SON!

MUMps is the word . . . and among the many adults catching IT from their kids recently were Scoutmaster Bill Haake, Jean Dudley and Charles Merrell. And just ABOUT everybody else!

A LETTER ADDRESSED to Mrs. W. W. Lee, HayFever Dr., was promptly delivered to her home on (Ah-Choo! S'cuse, please) Acacia Drive. More recently the kids calling it "Ol' Yeller."

OVERHEARD IN THE VILLAGE . . . "Do you know any older women in Orinda who might be interested in a full-time job?" Came back reply—"In Orinda, My Dear, there ARE no older women!"

One of Mommy's Little Darlings (Bless the little "blabbermouths!") bellowed forth for ALL to hear at Lucky's, whilst her mother was filling out the ticket stub for the Edsel contest—"Don't forget your AGE, Mother . . . Your AGE! You HAVE to put your AGE down, Mommy!" (The contest sign reads No one under 18 may enter.) So Mommy's age, in the neighborhood of 39, was loudly broadcast to One and All. Which shouldn't bother ANY of us—There being no older women in Orinda."

OVER ON OVERHILL DR., one boy burst into the kitchen with news that his neighbor-pal was having "Chromed Beef" for dinner. His mother KNEW he meant corned beef but figured it a mighty apt description considering the rising meat prices.

Because her birthday falls on Mar. 17, Natalie Williams of Sleepy Hollow has an enviable collection of shamrocked coffee-cups and Irish Beleek, just party of the pretty presents her Irish birthdate always calls for.

THE LUCK O' THE IRISH for the Whitford Kellys of Canon Dr. who left last Friday, arrived in New York Monday to celebrate St. Pat's Day and are now embarked on the first lap of their long dreamed-of holiday in Europe. The well-traversed couple (they make a Big Trip annually) will have a first-time look at the continent via a "Hansel & Gretel"-type bus tour that will wend them in and around the prettiest and most provincial parts of many countries. We like their Irish mailbox sign on Canon Drive . . . Green lettering on rustic wood, graced by handpainted carved shamrocks. Hmmm . . . kinda like that! (Copy Cat!).

CELEBRATING ST. PATRICK'S with a buffet dinner and dancing at the Athens Club in Oakland last Saturday night were the Andrew Hartanovs, Ted and Marie Schilling, Elbert Waynes, Jim Davisons, John Ogdens and the Fred Twinings. The Twinings were recent guests at Dodge Ridge and MORE recently, just last wknd., Millie copped honors along with Edith Breed for perfect prize-winning entries in the WC Camellia Show which many localities attended.

Also in the large Athens crowd having a try at the Irish Jig were Dick & Ann Copenhagen, the Julius Deubeners, John & Mary Dorr (they were recently in the Islands) and the Del Kays. John & Henrietta Den Dulk just MADE the party in time, thanks to John's nephew who drove him down from Modesto after the pvt. plane they were flying was "fogged in" there. Phil & Cappy Champion, too, were on hand for the Wearin' o' the Green.

The Champion's eldest dghtr. Gail, currently attdg. Secretarial School, was among the first of Barbara Stark's contemporaries to hostess a shower in honor of the Olympics Swim Champ who will join the June bridal ranks to wed Frank Jordan of Piedmont. The Linen shower, given Mar. 8 at the Champion's Canon Dr. residence, was presumably Irish Linen bein' so close to St. Pat's Day, no doubt!

LIKE SOMEONE SAID . . . The Irish never know WHEN to stop. And that's the last we'll mention of the gentleman who drove the snakes out of Ireland! Till next March, then—

On Orders From the Navy, Bobbei McLaren flew to Pearl Harbor last month. Those orders came from Top Brass—her husband, Captain Kenneth McLaren. He'll be home here in the Fall.

Bobbie Rieser's foot injury mentioned in an earlier column, turned out to be a broken leg she acquired while skiing some 6 wks. ago! (Forgive us for treating it so LIGHTLY!) So Bobbie didn't mind staying home last wknd. when spouse Jack joined a group of Orinda men, Dale McBane, Jerry Pixley, Jim Christiansen and Jimmy Dupuis who Batched It for some good skiing & a stay at a Swiss-type chalet at the Sugar Bowl. On the warmer side, the Harold Ohleyers will briefly dessert us for the desert and a salubrious stay at a Palm Springs spa.

THIS BEING NAT'L LIBRARY WEEK . . . a timely & rewarding sight to see the soil being turned for the new Orinda Library. AND funds derived from the Orinda MC Dance tomorrow night at Diablo Country Club will, appropriately, benefit each School Library of which there are five. To staff the libes, however, it takes almost 100 Women Power and the many Library Mothers who devote hours each wk. to keeping the bookshelves, files & our Little Bookworms in order deserve a VERY special tribute . . . Salute!

"NITE IN NEVERLAND" . . . Before entering the NeverNeverland of Peter Pan's world tomorrow eve, many groups will gather for parties-prandial, some pot-luck, some pretty fancy, ALL adding to the Fun of the Evening! The Ramey Reids of Miner Rd. will host a neighborhood conclave, cocktails & buffet, for the William Becketts, Doug Manuels, Andy Knudsens, Dr. & Mrs. Cecil Cutting, the Robert Spotts and Al De Grassis.

UP UP UP (Can YOU Fly?) on La Cuesta in the Jay Gordon Ainsworth's New Room With A View (the family room addition that won nat'l acclaim for outstdg. design by Bob Klemmedson of Orinda) will wine & dine the Paul Slatterys, Clint De Witts, Bill Brocks, Alan Searcys, Howard Bells, the Russell Gilwees, Spencer & Margaret Kendall, Art Sassones and Bob & June Thaman.

DOING A "PETER PAN" literally, and Flying Out to the Danville Hotel for VERY early nourishment will be various committee heads & their husbands who will have to be on deck at Diablo ahead of the first arrivals. Cynthia & Richmond Stampley and John & Sis Beckett will be tabled together here w/Ned & Alysone de Laveaga, Dorothy & Doug Knight and Jackie & Dennis O'Connor.

Over on Ardilla Rd., WC Library Chrmm. Fran Yedidia and her husband Avram will greet dinner guests, the George Hauers, Len & Marge Roth, Prentiss Combs, Jack Gilberts, Merrill Olsens, Vic Smiths and the Howard Jewels, HE being the Orinda Atty. who is the Demo Candidate for Congress.

Deserving of special kudos & thanks are Margo Heltne (Mrs. Glen) of Hidden Valley and Orinda newcomer Betty Yeaman (Mrs. Robert) of Hillcrest Dr. who both rolled up their sleeves LAST min. 11th hr. to lend their artistic talents to the success of this affair. The latter, Betty, and her husband Bob are newcomers since Dec. from the Southland and have three youngsters.

Boat Owners Plan Club In Lafayette

Plans are now underway for the formation of a non-profit power boat club in Lafayette, Ted Clark and Albert Anaclero, who are seeking to organize the club, announced this week.

According to Clark, there is a definite need for some form of association to help interested persons obtain the latest rules and safety regulations for small boat operation.

Meetings, said, would be held once a month for the purpose of good fellowship, discussion of boating facilities, safety rules and cruising information.

Membership, Clark said, would be open to anyone owning an inboard, cruiser or outboard motor boat. If enough persons evince interest in the project, Clark stated, an organizational meeting will be held soon.

Those wishing to join the movement may obtain information by calling Clark, AT 3-2368, or Anaclero, AT 3-2401.

Four Acalanes Students Win Scholarships

Four Acalanees High School District students have been declared finalists in the 1957-58 National Merit Scholarship Program. The tudents are Ernie Fox, Joan Haefele and Elsa Hilmer of Acalanes and Richard Olsen of Las Lomas High School.

All four qualified last semester for semi-finalist ratings. Completion of high scores on subsequent elimination tests have earned them finalist certificates of merit and the chance to receive any one of 1,000 merit scholarships awarded by 80 buiness and industrial corporations in the merit program.

The four Acalanes District winners are among 7,300 finalists in a testing of 256,000 of the "nation's most able high school seniors." Winners of the 1,000 scholarships offered by selected finalists will be announced in May.

In addition, four other Acalanes High School seniors have received special commendation from the National Merit Scholarship Corporation for "demonstrated highly superior ability and outstanding promise."

The four are Elizabeth Ballachey, Philip Branch, Susan Flint and Frederick Steinke.

Students from more than 14,000 high schools across the nation competed for "commendation," "finalist and scholarship awards. Both Acalanes District four-year high schools, Las Lomas and Acalanes, have "finalist" winners in this year's competition.

A Right to Be Proud Of All Orindans!!!

Orindans have a right to be proud of themselves!

Orinda has always been an outstanding community. Its residents have especially been noted for their interest in civic matters and their participation in civic affairs.

This has been demonstrated time and time again in matters varying from an organized fight to keep zoning in Orinda the way Orindans want it, to full cooperation in buying a site for a community center some years ago.

But there is one area in which Orinda has proved itself even more outstanding.

That is in preparation of plans and construction of a community library. And it is well to note this achievement now during National Library week.

The Orinda library fund has grown to over $100,000, all contributed "local money" and consruction is slated to start on the library not later than April 27.

This is the realization of a community dream and the culmination of a total community effort. After all, that is a lot of money to be raised in a relatively small community.

THE BATTLE is not over. Perc Brown, who has spearheaded the library fund drive, warns that an additional $20,000 is needed to insure construction.

Bids have been mailed to a list of approved contractors, and final figures on the cost, and the remaining funds needed will be available when the bids are opened next Friday.

But Orindans have a right to be proud. They have seen the need for a modern, community facility and have banded together to see that it is provided.

AS A RESULT, Orinda will be the first community in Central Contra county to provide really adequate library facilities for its residents.

This fund raising effort has taken two years of steady, unremitting work on the part of the Library Building Fund committee, and this committee is to be congratulated on its fine work.

IT HAS PROVIDED the organizational effort needed to "get the show on the road," worked through the lean years, and has finally seen the sight graded and bids sent to contractors.

This has been a fine job, but even could not have succeeded without the full such a group as the library committee cooperation of the community.

Individual residents have contributed, each according to his ability, and the community has contributed from such affairs as the recent Orinda Fiesta which donated $5600 to the library fund.

So, Orindans have a right to be proud of themselves and their community. In these times of summit conferences and tension, a display of community strength and cooperation is a welcome sight indeed, and Orinda has provided an excellent example of community cooperation.

Congratulations, Orinda, and Hats Off!

Tips for Publicists

By FRED HILL

So you've been elected publicity chairman of your club.

Now, you may ask, what can you do to assure your organization of adequate coverage in the newspaper?

Well, while I can't make any guarantees, I may be able to offer a few tips which may make both our jobs a little easier.

First off, here's the cardinal rule of newswriting. Get all the important facts as close to the top of the story as possible. Whether the average reader knows it o rnot, he's getting his "meat and potatoes" as soon as he delves into the average news story.

News stories are so written as to get all of the important matters taken care of in the first few paragraphs, termed "the lead." Subsidiary facts, explanation and expansion come further down and are subject to the editor's blue pencil and the unyielding demands of the editor's makeup rule.

The reasons for this procedure are quite simple. First of all, the hurried reader can digest the grist of a story in a few seconds, skipping on to another item if he's in a hurry. The other reason is a concession to the makeup man when it comes to putting pages together. If there's a five-inch "hole" in the page and the story in question is eight inches long, the answer is simple: cut three inches off the bottom of the story.

So by all means strive to get all the cold hard facts out of the way right off the bat. Don't leave an important fact out until the last paragraph . . . it may never see print.

WHAT ARE THE important facts? The newspaperman knows them as "the 5 W's and the H"—Who, What, Where When, Why and How. If you can answer these questions in the first couple of paragraphs of your press release, you're off to a fine start.

If you can add a little dash and give a key to the slant of the remainder of the story, so much the better.

Second: "Names Make the News," to follow another old saw which appears every week in "Time" magazine. Add as many names as you can to a story if the names are germane to the content. Try to add addresses, if you know them, and if children's names are used, include the names of parents. And, spell them right. A famous personality once said: "I don't care what you say about me, but spell my name right." This sums up the attitude of John Doe around the corner. If his name's in print, he wants it spelled right. True, it should be the editor's job to crosscheck names, and he often does, but he can't possibly check the spelling of every name that crosses his littered desk. Try and be as accurate as possible.

IS IT IMPORTANT? This is a question you should ask yourself frequently. Don't include extraneous material just for the sake of "padding" a story. And, in regard to our second precept, this goes for names as well. In a community newspaper such as this one, there is nothing that will catch an editor's eye more quickly than the name of the community or one of its residents.

So when names are used, let the editor and the reader know who they are, what they do, or at least where they live.

And, perhaps more important than all the other things combined, keep it short! The shorter a story is, the more chance it has of appearing in print. When Lincoln was asked how long a man's legs should be, he replied: "Long enough to touch the ground." This follows in the writing business as well. Say what you've got to say to get your story across. Then quit. Nothing dismays an editor more than an eight or nine-page manuscript with an earnest request to "print as is." His joy is the infrequent release labeled "Edit to suit."

THAT TAKES CARE of the principles. Now a few mechanical matters.

If you can type, by all means type your articles. This will go a long way in making an editor happy. And, double space. This helps greatly if it is necessary to add a fact or two.

If you can't type, print, or write as legibly as possible. If you can't do any of these, use the phone or stop in the office. No editor worth his salt will pass up a story just because it isn't in ready-made form.

If you can, use standard typing paper, with a dull finish. Stay away from odd sized sheets and onion skin papers. Carbon copies are OK, too, as long as they're legible. But anyone who fires off a 10th copy to an editor or who sends a blurry copy is courting a rendezvous with the wastebasket. Number your pages in the upper lefthand corner. It helps to include your name and phone number there, too, in case any checking is needed.

These are all tips which, frankly, do more good for the editor than they may do even for you, for, after all, we are essentially lazy and don't mind saving ourselves a little work.

we want to hear from you.

Sun Strokes

Author Impelled by Styles To Be Railroaded on Ties

By PAT PENDING

Even at the risk of being ridden out of town on a rail, I feel impelled to do a column on the current styles for women!

I have always contended that the distance of the feminine hemline from old terra firma has a direct bearing upon the Nation's economy! Getting down to earth, I firm-ly believe that short skirts go hand in hand with prosperity (witness the Fabulous Twenties).

WHEN A TIRED businessman can rest his weary eyes on a well-turned female calf, he immediately feels better and is more optimistic and confident. And, since we're all involved in a confidence game, this is good for general morale (and enlisted men's as well!) I repeat, a skirt recession is not inflationary! It tends to keep the wolf away from the door and don on the corner whistling as the girls go by!

And peaking of calves! An article in last week's Sun has me puzzled! I quote:

"It is estimated that there are now about 4000 gray whales and 500 calves."

This is most disturbing information! I should think that 4000 right-minded gray whales could produce more than 500 blubbering calves. Let's get rid of the slackers!

Now, about this here women's style problem.

HOLLAND IS famous for its tulips; the Swiss are famous for watches and putting holes in cheese; Poland is famous for its rock 'n roll addicts (surely you've heard of Pole Cats) and Paris got this way? The French has had styles for centuries. They also have highly intelligent pigs and train these brainy porkers to jump over the styles and to sniff out truffles.

However, when it comes to jumping over French styles, the American Woman puts the French pig to shame! For some strange reason anything dreamed up by a Paris modiste is the MOST. It could be a box dress with inner framework designed to make the wearer look precisely like a Christmas package complete with "do not open until" and still our gals would accept the monstrosity because it came from Paris.

Maybe it's because Paris Styles change every year that makes them so popular. And Paris Styles are popular! Why, even the Los Angeles Coliseum has one! Paris Styles change almost so often as French governments. The peculiar thing is that the Frenchmen are not noted for their interest in dresses but rather what's in them!

Oh, well! Here's the Pending contribution intended to make American Women really stylish:

GO DOWN, GALS, to the nearest produce department at your favorite grocers. If you'll but inquire, I'm sure you can purchase a slightly used potato sack for a mere pittance. Be sure to remove any stray potatoes as we do not want any lumps or curves to be apparent in this creation we are about to create.

Take care, too, that mesh is not too loosely woven (that's why an orange sack won't do). Escort your purchase home. Then, with a pair of tinsnips, cut a hole for the left arm and a hole for the right arm (cutting a hole for your head is strictly optional). Voila! You've got it!

And you've made Paris green! Pure poison!

DOG PROBLEM

Dear Editor:

We have subscribed to your paper for years but have as yet to see an article therein concerning dog owners who seem to be remarkably aloof from the fundamentals of human relations or any consideration for their neighbors.

Those of us who own purebred dogs which are well kept and trained do not allow our dogs to roam at large to be a nuisance or get lost.

Those who own dogs for pets and allow them to roam the neighborhoods to destroy property and bark at everyone that dares to walk by even on a public road is certainly demonstrating the very height or ill manners and rudeness.

It would be a blessing to mankind and also save the good dogs' reputation if we could do away with barking annoying dogs.

A faithful subscriber and reader.

POLICE BILLBOARDS

Dear Editor:

The East Bay Chapter of The American Institute of Architects believes there should be federal legislation to prevent billboards from over-running the proposed new interstate system of highways.

Undoubtedly there are garden and landscape groups and safety-conscious groups who feel as AIA does that beauty and safety on the highways are better served when billboards are at a minimum.

We urge such persons to write legislators their views. Now is the time.

HACHIRO YUASA,
President East Bay Chapter, American Institute of Architects.

SUBSCRIPTION

Dear Editor:

Please send me The Sun for two years and bill me at the same time for same. I have forgotten the rate.

I always enjoyed your paper and hope you keep up the good work with it.

TELEVISION

Dear Editor:

Educational television Channel 9 offered a real service to the Bay Area by telecasting the recent debate between Dr. Edward Teller and Dr. Linus Pauling on the question of radioactive fallout from nuclear tests.

The recent Federal Communications Commission dispute on awarding channels fortunately does not affect the educational channels already assigned.

Much credit for these educatioal channels, and the fight to keep these for the public, free of commercials, must go to Dr. Vaughn Seidel, retiring Alameda County Superintendent of Schools.

He worked hard to gather support for Channey 9, KQED, and led groups in 1950, which pointed out to the FCC the need to authorize the channels in various parts of the US and take the decision out of politics, partisian and otherwise, or the FCC.

However, KQED needs financial support because of it noncommercial nature (thank goodness) so we can subscribe our dollar or two, so that great events such as the Teller-Pauling debates can be heard, as well as symphony music, and good lectures etc. can be brought nightly to the Bay Area over channel 9.

Tom Kendall

THANKS FOR SUPPORT

Dear Editor:

Even though we were disappointed at the outcome of our tax limit election last week, I would like to thank you for the space you devoted to the issue and the election in the Suns.

We were also most appreciative of the fact that you saw fit to editorialize in favor of the proposed tax limit.

NEIL M. PARSONS,
District Superintendent.

VALUES QUESTIONED

Dear Editor:

It is difficult to understand the rejection which the citizens of our community demonstrated in their refusal of the moderate request for school needs by the Acalances High School District.

Anyone, with a modicum of objectivity, could hardly defend a negative stand after examination of the facts plainly presented by our local board of education.

The waves of children, soon to engulf our high schools in unprecedented numbers, will present problems the magnitude of which our educators have never encountered.

A reevaluation of values seems to be indicated. Could we justify the amount refused with the infinitesimal effect it might have on our way of life?

The tragic note was that those who had no voice in the decision are the ones who must face the limitations—our children.

RICHARD W. LELAND.

DEAR EDITOR:

Just a brief note of congratulations to you and The SUN for winning top honors for both outstanding community service also best newspaper promotion February 8 at Coronado.

I've watched these CNPA award sessions for several years, and I know it must be gratifying to you and your staff to be given this recognition and, more important, to see each week how you are earning it.

A Reader Talks Back On County Charter Plan

By Herman Silverman

Last week this column presented a lengthy report on the charter form of county government—and its advantages. From this study it is my opinion that Contra Costa County would benefit from it. I have not, however, considered it in detail but am convinced that it should be studied carefully.

It is interesting to note that our county is the largest in the state without a charter. We are a general law county. Marin and Sonoma counties are now officially considering charters. A charter permits a county to decide how its officials shall be selected (elected or appointed), and how its government is organized and operated. Usually, most "minor" officials are appointed by the elected board of supervisors and the county is administered by a manager.

People are working on it

Now looking at this problem is "The Organization to Study County Government." It will hold a meeting Wednesday at 8 p.m. at the P.G.&E. Building in Walnut Creek and the public is invited. Desmond Teeter, county administrator, will speak.

I have received a letter opposing the charter form of government and it is printed below. I do want to answer one point. The writer apparently believes it is essential that the citizens have an opportunity to vote for assessor, clerk, tax collector, auditor, coroner, etc.

In theory, he may be correct. The argument is that such officials are more responsive to the public if they are elected rather than appointed. In practice, it doesn't work out that way. First, because an incumbent for these posts in this county is very rarely opposed.

For example, the five above-named offices are on the ballot this year and so far no one but the incumbents are running. And there probably won't be opposition.

Let's look at the record

Officials in these posts stay in office for years. They are not answerable to the board of supervisors or anyone They can do a poor job for years and nothing happens.

Take the county's recent recorder. He was absent from his office constantly and for years. Money was pilfered in his office. Salary kickbacks were arranged. Nothing happened for years until the last grand jury brought charges. Now the office has been combined with county clerk.

I believe we could have more effective, economical and honest government if these offices were appointed by the supervisors who in turn would appoint a county manager to administer the government. Our supervisors are not full-time. They should legislate and establish policy. They should not actually run the government.

We need business management

This should be delegated to a strong administrative authority. We do have a county administrator but he does not have the powers that a county manager has in a charter form of government.

Yes, there are weaknesses in this proposed system. But its good qualities surpass its weak spots. Anyway, here is the letter in opposition:

"Your last issue containing the diatribe on county government virtually comes out for a county charter form of government. Perhaps you should investigate conditions in other counties before advocating a charter here.

"Charter governments are a bureaucrat's paradise, and the next step from bureaucracy is what? Would you call it Fascism? A charter places government behind barriers where the people cannot get at it. It's the trend to get city managers in the same position, too, a boss over the people, with no recourse.

"At the outset let's give the solution: CHANGE THE ARCHAIC STATE LAWS TO GIVE COUNTIES REAL HOME RULE.

"Even under a charter the counties are still amenable to certain state laws.

Look at other counties . . .

"Look at San Francisco now—with 20 amendments to the charter. It's a repetition of what happens every year. Look at San Mateo and its chaotic government under a charter.

"Let's take the assessor's office under your "strong" business manager, under a county charter. Suppose he favored industry over home owners in his assessments. Howinhell would the people ever reach him? You tell us.

"The answer of the charter advocates, who say privately 'the people can't be trusted,' is that you have the board of supervisors to hold responsible. Howinhell are you going to remove three supervisors at one election to change bureaucratic domination? It isn't going to be done.

"REPEAT—THE ANSWER IS: CHANGE ARCHAIC STATE LAWS AND STOP THE TREND TO BUREAUCRACY AND FASCISM. THE PEOPLE HAVE ENOUGH BOSSES NOW. DON'T MAKE IT WORSE.

"Do you think that an appointive agency, under charter, is going to crucify one of its appointees and admit its own error?

A shorter ballot?

"One spurious argument by the bureaucrats is that a charter form of government, with its consolidations, will shorten the ballot.

"You are not far from Oakland and San Francisco. Suppose you check them and get your own result. Self-supplied information is better than handout.

"We're Europeanizing this country too fast as it is, persuading the people to give up their rights. Let's not walk them into this trap of giving up more rights for the bureaucratic promoters who say 'the people can't be trusted.' People are dissatisfied with the present set of officers, but to scrap the democratic form of local government in order to get rid of them is to throw the baby out with the bath. For the third time—change the archaic state laws."

Collins Seeking Re-election to County DA Post

The candidacy of Francis W. Collins of Pinole for re-election as District Attorney was announced today. He filed nomination papers with County Clerk Walter T. Paasch.

Collins served as a deputy district attorney from 1932 to 1935 and was appointed district attorney of the County by the Board of Supervisors in 1945. He has held that office since that time.

COLLINS, a native of this County, said that he is asking for retention in this office on the basis of his legal services rendered to the people of the County as a public official.

He said: "There is no office closer to the people's rights and personal interests than that of District Attorney. No one has a greater responsibility or privilege of guarding personal freedom.

"In the approach to this responsibility, I have felt that each and everyone is entitled to the same interest and consideration each would receive from a private attorney."

"The work of the office," Collins said, "has increased tremendously and the fact that it has been handled with a minimum of delay and to the best interests of the County and the districts is a matter of record."

"I AM AN attorney. I want the people of Contra Costa County to treat my employment as district attorney in like manner as they would in the employment of their own lawyer.

"I want you, the people of Contra costa County, to retain me as district attorney for four more years," he said.

Collins is one of nine children. He is married and the father of three children. He was a school trustee for seventeen years, a high school teacher for three years, graduate of the Public Schools of Contra Costa County, and the University of San Francisco. Collins began the practice of the law in 1930.

Artificial Respiration Classes Are Scheduled

Sometime this summer, you may find yourself staring at a body hauled out of someone's (maybe yours) swimming pool, and wondering what to do.

And what you do immediately may mean the difference between life and death, according to members of the Mt. Diablo Chapter, American Red Cross.

A person who has apparently stopped breathing after being brought out of the water may still be saved if air can somehow be pumped into the lungs quickly.

The Mt. Diablo Chapter will hold artificial respiration classes next week in Orinda, Walnut Creek, Danville, Moraga and Pleasant Hill.

Here is the schedule: Monday—Orinda, Pine Grove School all purpose room, supervised by Robert Sherman; Tuesday — Walnut Creek, Las Lomas High School multi-purpose room, Ed Leach; Wednesda—Danville, San Ramon Valley High band room, Bob Vincent; Thursday, Moraga, Miramonte High School multi-purpose room, Joe Maltby; next Friday—Pleasant Hill High School, Room 604, Dave Olson.

Inspector Stoffels is Candidate for Sheriff

Inspector Ray L. Stoffels, veteran of more than two decades of service under three Contra Costa Sheriffs, today announced his candidacy for sheriff in the June 3 Primary.

Stoffels, a 46-year old career officer, has been granted a leave of absence, effective April 1, in which to conduct his campaign for the post.

"I have a deep and sincere desire to restore law enforcement in Contra Costa to the principles of which efficient enforcement and planning are basic requisites," Stoffels said.

I PROPOSE TO maintain a friendly cooperative attitude toward all other agencies and departments of government, and I consider that the happiness and morale of subordinate employes of the department are necessary to the performance of a real job of law enforcement for all the people of the county."

Stoffels said he will outline a progressive and constructive program during the course of his campaign, and give the voters an opportunity to study and evaluate his platform.

A native of Oakland and a graduate of Oakland Technical High School, Stoffels joined the Sheriff's Department more than 21 years ago as head of the Bureau of Identification.

He served subsequently as head of subversive files and investigations during World War II, Inspector in charge of the Eastern Division, head of the Special Service Bureau for the entire county, head of the Martinez-Oakley Patrol Division and recently, as head of the Oakley Substation.

HE WAS NAMED Inspector in 1943 and assigned to investigation of major crime cases in the county.

In 1953, he was named to head the Special Service Bureau in charge of investigating cases involving prostitution, gambling, child molesting and related moral cases.

He is past president of the Contra Costa County Peace Officers Association and the Contra Costa County Employees Association, an elective director of the County Retirement Board, a director of Central Contra Costa Red Cross Chapter and chairman of its fund drive committee, and is active in several fraternal organizations.

Stoffels resides with his wife, Kay, and son at 2887 Concord Boulevard, Concord. His daughter, son-in-law and grandson also live in Concord.

Waldie Files For Assembly

Jerome R. Waldie, Antioch attorney, became an official candidate for the State Assembly 10th District, by completing the filing of his nomination papers this week.

Waldie is the Democratic candidate for the post, although he has cross-filed on the Republican ticket, also.

His nomination papers are unique in that the Mayor of Antioch, Reuben Reimche, signed his Republican papers, and the Mayor of Martinez, Jack Coglizer, signed his Democratic petition. In addition, 5th District Supervisor Joe Silva and Frank Billeci, Treasurer of the City of Pittsburg signed the Democratic petition.

Waldie is the son of the late George D. "Bul" Waldie, a former Mayor of Antioch. He and his wife, Joanne, are the parents of 2 children, Jill, age 5 and Jonathon, age 2.

He has been a life-long resident of Antioch and received his law degree at the University of California.

He is a member of the California State Bar Association, I.O.O.F., Toastmasters, American Legion, and Juvenile Hall Auxiliary. He has been active in Boy Scout work and was chairman of the United Crusade in Antioch.

Waldie stated that the primary issues facing the State Legislature, involve immediate action to alleviate unemployment, increase in school facilities, and the cessation of politically motivated attempts to unduly restrict responsible unionism.

Detective Charles Myhre Enters Sheriff's Race

Charles A. Myhre, 32 year old detective of the Contra Costa County Sheriffs Department announced today that he is a candidate for Sheriff.

Detective Myhre is a graduate of Harding Grammar School in El Cerrito, and of Longfellow and Richmond Union High School. He holds a degree from the University of California School of Criminology.

Myhre joined the Sheriff's Department in 1949 and has served as jailer, radio dispatcher, patrol deputy, and detective. He received a commendation for his work in compiling the first County Ordinance Codebook.

"MY PRIMARY REASON for running for Sheriff is that I believe I am the best qualified of all the candidates and will do the best job if elected. I ask the voters to take a careful look at the qualifications of each candidate. Consider his leadership ability and his character, his military background, his education, his law enforcement experience, his civic interests, and his family. Compare—and then choose."

Myhre is Cubmaster of Cub Pack 203, Pleasant Hill, a member of the Deputy Sheriffs Association, County Employees Association, LAE Law Enforcement fraternity, and the California Alumni Assn. He is presently a detective in charge of fraud investigation in the Sheriff's Department.

"I WILL ANNOUNCE my platform later. However at this point I make this promise—that if I am elected I will work for the Board of Supervisors and not against them. I will ask that state legislation be enacted which will make the position of Sheriff appointive and subject to the control of the Board of Supervisors. A Sheriff who is answerable only to the people once in every four years can, if unqualified, do too much damage and can hurt too many people before he is replaced at the end of that four years."

MYHRE HAS BEEN a resident of El Cerrito and Pleasant Hill for the past twenty nine years. He served in the U.S. Navy from 1943 to 1949. He was recalled to active duty during the Korean War. He was gunnery officer of the Destroyer USS Uhlmann DD 387 in 1952.

In 1953 he served as Administrative Officer of the U.S. Naval Retraining Command at Mare Island. He is presently a lieutenant in the Naval Reserve, recently having served as Public Relations Officer of Brigade 12-2, Treasure Island.

Detective Myhre and his wife and three children live at 283 Belva Lane, Pleasant Hill.

Don Practice Record Holds With 2 Each

The Acalanes Dons made it a 2-2 record in practice games to date when they posted a 10-0 win over Liberty High of Brentwood Tuesday afternoon.

The Dons diamond machine was in fine shape as they pounded 10 hits in notching the win while limiting the opposition to two safe blows.

The hits came on a pair of singles, one coming in the fourth and the other in the seventh.

The Dons scored a single run in the first three in the fourth four in the fifth and two in the seventh.

Dave Bojarsky had two for five (a single and double) while Jim Holden had two for four (singles) to pace the Don attack.

Batteries for the Dons were Hansen and Kritscher (3) and Pejovich, Bojarsky (4).

For Liberty, Whitley, Reiro Tamayo and Pirce.

Crowd Views Acalanes Adult Center Show

On Friday, March 14, and Saturday, March 15, the Acalanes Adult Center presented its Fifth Annual Homecraft and Fashion Show.

In spite of the poor weather conditions it has been estimated that over 1000 people attended the show to view exhibits of braided rugs, flower arrangement, woodshop, wrought iron, interior decorating, art, leathercraft, jewelry making, lapidary, silk screen printing, pottery and ceramics, cake decorating, foods for special occasions, landscape design, home movie making and driver training.

Seventy class members of the nine classes in sewing, tailoring, pattern making, millinary and knitting presented a fashion show attended by 300 or more people. This year's show has been described by many as the best one to date.

"It is interesting to note that the instructional expenses of the Adult program are covered by State appropriations and adult fees paid by the participants. No local tax monies are required", stated A. D. Dambacher, Director of Adult Education.

This quarter's enrollment stands at nearly 1700. The total enrollment for the summer, fall and winter quarters this year is nearly 4000. This would indicate an over-all increase of 10% this year over last, Dambacher said.

Last year's graduating class consisted of 16 people and this year's graduates will number in excess of 24. All these factors would seem to indicate that adult education, which is now well into the 2nd 100 years in California, is a healthy and growing portion of the educational family, Dambacher stated.

Registrations are now open for the spring quarter at the Acalanes Adult Center office, Acalanes High School, Monday through Thursday evenings, 7 to 10 p.m. Instruction will begin following the Easter vacation, the week of April 7.

It is recommended that people interested in attending the Spring Quarter classes register before classes begin.

Eyman Lauds New Proposals

Jack Eyman, Lafayette, president of the General Contractors Association of Contra Costa County, said recently the far-reaching housing programs being considered by Congress, if adopted, should do much to stimulate the home building industry and the general economy.

"Many authorities now are talking hopefully of signs that the home building industry can lead the economy out of the business recession we are experiencing," Eyman said.

"Under proper circumstances, the home building industry can do a major share of revitalizing our economy," he said. "But other corrective actions also must be taken to stabilize the rest of the economy."

He said some of these "corrective actions" were listed by Nels G. Severin, president of the Builders in a statement to the Senate Banking and Currency Committee.

These actions included more defense expenditures for the safety of the nation, stepped-up public works, community facilities, schools, highways, and more spending for urban renewal.

Heart Fund Drive Tallies Are Strong

The 1958 Heart Fund collection in local areas of the Diablo Valley region showed an increase over contributions in the 1957 campaign in most cases, according to Walter Ratcliff, county campaign chairman. Final results are not yet completely tallied.

He reported that Alamo and Lafayette-Moraga exceeded the goals set at the start of the campaign. With a goal of $675, Alamo totalled $964.65. Mrs. Marvin Epstein headed the campaign. With a total of $3232 reported to date, Lafayette-Moraga chairman, Mrs. Norman Hodgkin, hopes to top the $3000 quota by a larger amount when final returns are made from mail contributions not yet in.

Orinda and Walnut Creek showed higher totals in the 1958 Heart Sunday collections than those of last year. Mrs. J. H. Schwarck, Orinda chairman, reported that $3182.39 had been received in contributions to date. This compares with $2770.95 in 1957.

Mrs. Charles Jack, Walnut Creek Heart Sunday chairman, reported a total to date of $4201.51 against $3593.87 a year ago.

According to Mrs. Robert Mainhardt, chairman for Danville, results to date show that $1161.64 was the Heart Sunday total, compared with $1237.02 in 1957. The chairman urged those who for some reason were not called upon, to send in contributions to the Contra Costa County Heart Asociation. 2030 North Main, Walnut Creek.

Results from Pacheco-Pleasant Hill were not yet available.

Youth, Parents Invited to Y Camp Films

Youngsters between the ages of six and 17 years, inclusive, who are interested in learning a little about YMCA Camp Gualala in the Redwoods, are invited to see films depicting camp life, according to John Price, executive secretary of the Mt. Diablo YMCA.

The films will be shown several times, so that children and parents who may find it inconvenient to attend when it is in their area may attend another showing.

The film, which shows a typical camp day, complete with all the activities, will be shown in Lafayette tonight at 7:30 in room 20 of Lafayette School.

Orindans may see the film next Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. in the auditorium of the Orinda School. Walnut Creek people will view the film at the Walnut Creek School at 7:30 p.m. on Monday and Pleasant Hill residents can see it next Thursday at 7:30 p.m. at the Oak Park School.

Parents and youngsters are alike invited, and there is no charge.

Spread a little Sunshine and watch your garden grow!

Sunshine
CANADIAN SPHAGNUM
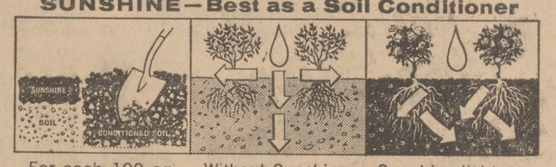
PEAT MOSS

Nothing can top Sunshine Sphagnum as a soil conditioner or garden mulch for three very simple — and proven — reasons. First, sphagnum holds more water than any other type of peat or peat moss. Second, it has the highest organic content — humus — of all peats and peat mosses. Third, it lasts so long as an active soil conditioner!

SUNSHINE—Best as a Soil Conditioner



For each 100 sq. ft., apply 3 bales of Sunshine 6" to 8" deep. Generosity now gives years of conditioned soil.

Without Sunshine, water runs off clay soils, drains through sandy soils. Moisture and fertilizers are lost.

Sunshine lightens clay soils, binds sandy soils, holds moisture and fertilizers — insures a beautiful garden!

SUNSHINE—Best as a Garden Mulch

Soak your peat moss first, then spread over garden at least 2" deep. Push it up close to stems of plants.

Mulching Sunshine gives your garden that rich dark look. It's also a built-in "when to water" indicator!

In summer, Sunshine mulch stops weeds, cuts down your cultivating and watering efforts—carefree gardening!

Ask your nurseryman for free booklet "How to Prepare Your Soil"— or write Wilson & Geo. Meyer & Co., 333 Montgomery St., San Francisco 4, California.

10,000 Lovely Carnations To Be Given at Broadway

Ten thousand lovely carnations will be given free to visitors during the gala "Festival of Values" celebration now at the Broadway Shopping Center, Walnut Creek.

But that's not all — attached to hundreds of the welcome cards, which are on each carnation, are merchandise orders ranging in value from $1 to $5 and will be honored at stores specified on each card.

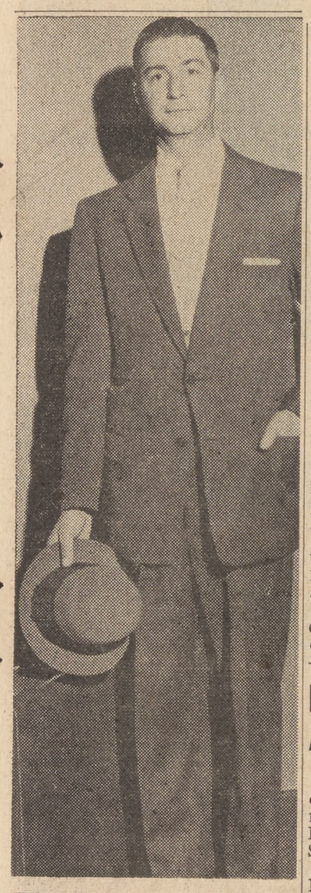
On hand to greet visitors, will be costumed young ladies who will present to the expected throng the beautiful carnations.

George Webster, chairman of the Broadway Merchants Association, sponsors of the gala Festival of Values, extends an invitation to residents throughout Contra Costa County to attend the three-day celebration.

In making his invitation public, Webster noted that acres of free parking are available at the huge shopping center and all the ultra-modern stores are just a few steps away from the more-than-ample parking areas.

"Follow the Sign of the Red Carnation" is the slogan for three-wonderful days and one evening of celebration at the shopping center in Walnut Creek, Webster announced.

Vast Broadway Parking Area Will Be Enlarged



WEARING AUSTIN LEED'S charcoal grey suit, shirt by Arrow, shoes by Edwin Clapp, Bill Schatz is ready for any type of social or business activity. The two-suiter Samsonite suitcase, of course, is another choice item offered at Smith's in Broadway.

Parking facilities of the Broadway Shopping Center will be enlarged even further when MacDonnell's Nursery is moved in the future from just south of Sears to East Newell Avenue.

Another important development will be the creation of much new parking space just north of Penney's, when the Little Master Plan work is completed.

THESE WILL MAKE for an even better balancing and distribution of parking in the compact shopping center, and the few steps now required will become even fewer!

Ever aware that convenience is primary with modern shoppers, Broadway merchants recently opened up new parking stalls in the area formerly occupied by the Medical-Dental Building, behind Broadway Pharmacy.

AND THE SMART shopper also knows that there is an ample parking area just behind Joseph Magnin's.

How much parking space is there in Broadway? More than 1800 cars are able to find a spot at the same time.

This abundance of parking is due to the foresight and planning of Broadway merchants.

Kids are Riding Merry-Go-Round

Round and round go the lucky children who are riding the merry-go-round in front of the Lucky Store in the Broadway Shopping Center.

The merry-go-round will be at Lucky for several more weeks and will then be moved to another location in Broadway.

The merchants decided that anything which will make the boys and girls happy is worth the trouble, and the merry-go-round has certainly been greeted with enthusiasm. The rides are 10 cents, 3 for 25 cents.

Famous TV Star Will Be Featured during Festival

Fabulous Captain Fortune of television fame will be the feature attraction of the gala "Festival of Values" celebration in the huge Broadway Shopping Center, Walnut Creek.

Captain Fortune, who appears every Saturday morning over KPIX and creates the children's page for the San Francisco News, will appear Saturday in four, free performances. The shows will be on a stage in the parking lot across from Sterling Furniture.

In between the performances, which wil be at 2, 2:30, 3 and 3:30, free tickets for the Broadway Merry-Go Round will be distributed to all the children.

The Festival of Values is sponsored by the Broadway Merchans Association, George Webster is chairman.

Captain Fortune has won many national awards for his instructive and informative television programs and newspaper articles.

His many programs range in scope from coverage of local children's news, such as interviewing visiting children from other countries and safety poster contest winners, to games, quizes and child-participation games.

Many cooperative nursery schools use his personally-developed games as instruction material.

Teachers in many areas urge students in the lower grades to watch his programs Saturday mornings and thousands of San Francisco youngsters follow him in the papers.

Shapely Trend Prevails In Era of the Chemise

It's the era of the chemise. But all in favor of femininity are urged to be of good cheer. Whether low-waisted or no-waisted, easy fitted or unfitted, the spring '58 silhouette of the chemise and its fashion relatives is shapely rather than straight, as the supple new coats, suits, dresses and separates delightfully prove.

With the chemise as inspiration, fashion plays many variations on the major theme of the slender, relaxed look. Shorter skirts accompany the look, and gracefully simple lines get emphasis through attractive trims, newly bold colors and beautifully textured fabrics.

As for the variations, there's the chemise itself — sometimes a smooth flow of fabric fitted only at the hips, and sometimes with a front detailed for a fitted look and a draped, tapering back. Chemise lines are seen in coats and suits as well as dresses. Alternatively, and importantly, there's the bloused look — a bloused top above a slim, easy skirt. This may be expressed through back blousing only, but all - around blousing, sometimes on a curving line that's up in front, down in back, is winning increasing approval.

Another relaxed silhouette features the overblouse — a lightly fitted, hipbone length top above, again, a slim skirt. The overblouse silhouette appears in two-piece and two-piece-look dresses, in suits and separates. In the case of coats, the same effect is often created by hip-level detailing.

Oval shaping goes its graceful way in coats and suit jackets, with softly rounded backs widest at the shoulders and tapered to the hem. This is the same shape seen in chemise dresses with fitted-look fronts.

THIS LANZ ORIGINAL creation is an imported silk blouson chemise, modeled fashionably by Virginia Leidy, of the Country Girl, Broadway, Walnut Creek. The Country Girl features Lanz dresses and sportswear. — Anthon's Commerical Photography.

Broadway Sales Personnel To Be Wearing Carnations

Sales personnel throughout the huge Broadway Shoping Center, Walnut Creek, will be ready and wearing bright carnations in expectation of an overflowing throng during the center's current Festival of Values.

Keynoting the celebration will be Captain Fortune of television fame Saturday afternoon.

At least 10,000 carnations will be distributed by lovely costumed young ladies, during each day of the event.

Wonderful quality goods will be offered at reduced prices by participating merchants during the celebration. Many new styles and colors of spring merchandise will be displayed.

George Webster, Chairman of the Broadway Merchants Association, pointed out that each sales person in all stores of the shopping center will take it upon himself to show the very best merchandise at the very lowest prices to each visitor during the gala three-day Festival.

Beautiful silk-screened signs will be posted and live trees, which will be set up along some of Broadway's strees, will highlight the spring theme and visitors will be aware that Easter time is almost here.

"Merchandise prizes, carnations, excitement are in store for visitors and on Saturday Captain Fortune will present his four, free performances for all the childen from 2 until 4," Webster said.

Penney's Turn Back Hands Of Time at Birthday Party

Residents of Contra Costa County will be able to step back to the turn of the century when Penney's celebrates its nationwide 56th Anniversary in the Broadway Shopping Center, Walnut Creek, according to Clinton Newell, manager.

The birthday celebration, which begins April 10 and continues throughout the month, will feature window displays and styles of the times when Penney's was founded.

Sales people will also be in the spirit of the celebration with their high button shoes and removable collars for the men and ankle-length dresses with puffy sleeves for the ladies.

Every department of Penney's will offer specials to let the public in on the birthday party, Newell said.

"Remember, just a few more weeks before one of the gayest most bargain-packed birthday parties ever to be held at Broadway, Walnut Creek, will begin.

"Be sure and be on hand for the 56th Birthday Celebration of J. C. Penney and Company.

The Celebration starts April 10," Newell stated.

Park Council Discusses Need for Reserving Land

Regional areas for recreation were discussed in a forum meeting sponsored jointly by the Contra Costa Park and Recreational Council and the East Bay Municipla Utility District Citizens' Committee at Whittier School in Berkeley March 5.

Speakers were Ray Thayer of the Contra Costa County Planning Department; E. N. Munns, president of the Contra Costa Park and Recreation Council and Jeffery Cohelan, Berkeley City Council liaison with the Berkeley Recreational Committee.

THAT A GROWING need exists in communities around the Bay for day and overnight camping facilities, fresh water swimming, picnic areas, small boat harbors, open land retained as nature area for the preservation of wildlife, hiking trails, and public fishing was emphasized by each of the panel speakers.

Cohelan reviewed the history of the Regional Park System and pointed out the present startling parallel with 1930 when the East Bay Metropolitan Park Association and several other organizations made a study recommending "Park Reservations."

Our present regional parks are the result of the report of this committee, Cohelan said.

Ray Thayer, Contra Costa County Planning Department, inventoried present park areas and especially suggested that efforts be made to retain about 3000 acres around San Pablo Dam for recreational purposes.

Thayer also proposed parkways to join Briones Valley, San Pablo, and El Sobrante. He also mentioned the desirability of a connection of these areas with Tilden Park.

Quasi-public lands which might be acquired for park and recreational purposes were the especial concern of E. N. Munns. He urged that in long term planning 100,000 acres will be needed for Bay Area recreational uses of which about 10,000 acres should be in Contra Costa County.

"WHILE FUNDS are not presently available to purchase properties immediately, such lands as have particularly desirable attributes for recreational use must now be set aside until purchase can be arranged." he said.

A full Bay Area Recreational District might be able to accomplish this by zoning, Munns suggested.

Stressed also by Mr. Munns is the advisability of acquiring the Redwood Canyon area for park purposes. Among the unique resources of the Canyon area, Mr. Munns named its wonderful trees, a living stream with fish, and the Huckleberry Trail, much prized by hikers.

Betty Decides to Combine Fun with a Shopping Tour

By BETTY

My kids can hardly wait for Saturday to see Captain Fortune at the Broadway Shopping Center. And the free carnations with prizes sound like fun, too.

Now let me tell you about all the wonderful things that I have seen in Broadway:

FOR TOMMY, I'm going to Grodins and pick up one of these wonderful boy's all-wool flannel suits for Easter.

It's one of the three-button models that will make Tommy look SO grown up.

Then, I must drop by Capwell's and pamper myself a little by getting one of those marvelous Capioni dresses. It's that new overblouse type that is just perfect for Easter - - and drip-dry to!

Next Elsie's Sportswear on South Main for one of those authentic Hawaiian prints. After all, they just arrived and I want to be one of the first to have one.

I MISSED OUT the last time because it was just a sellout of those washable cottons which are made to wear whenever the sun pops out or the stars shine.

Oh! That reminds me of the new location special at Robert Sawyers. They're over on East Newell Avenue now and I have just been dying to drop in and browse around their new spacious building.

I heard their slogan and I think it's so cute: "We hope you like the new Robert Sawyer's, we do!"

I'D BETTER back track a little bit though. Before I walk to Robert Sawyer's and Elsie's, I'll stop at Birdies Toy House.

Our youngster has been driving me out of my mind for one of these forts and military sets. I know I should't buy one of those sets for a girl, but she's in that tom-boy stage and after all, what can you do about it?

And if I'm going to Birdies, I'd better stop into Smith's. My husband is forever getting his dress shirts all dirty and now Smith's has some of these washable sport shirts . . . long and short sleeves in patterns, plaids, stripes and plains. They have acetates, silks and cottons too.

BY THE BY, Sterling Furniture has even more of that charming colonial furniture. They have an outstanding "Spice Box" maple displays. What wonderful, wonderful prices, too. It has an atmosphere of hospitality and friendly informality.

I'm going to drop by Hendrick Piano Company and shop their "at cost sale" now underway.

I dropped by Penney's the other day and of course they are getting ready for their 56th Birthday Celebration which will begin April 10 and last through the rest of the month.

But to get back to my original thought, one of the very lovely sales girls told me that they would have Penney's very own Peti-Point shoes available.

They are the very newest styles with the very flat heel and very pointed toes. You really see your footprint in leather.

JUST ACROSS the street, at Crescent Jewelry, they are having a terrific sale on General Electric Steam and Dry irons. What a saving!

Well, that just about covers my shopping tour - I'll start out bright and early in the morning. . Betty

Broadway Stores Remain Open Friday Nights

Stores in the Broadway Shopping Center, Walnut Creek, are open Friday nights for the convenience of families and persons who cannot find the time to shop during the day.

Merchants have also discovered that many families get a great deal of fun and pleasure out of visiting the stores together in the evening.

The late hours also give the family time to eat dinner at home or downtown, and still leisurely stop in at any number of stores, conveniently located within short distances in the center.

College Vets Club Elects

The Veteran's Club of East Contra Costa Jr. College installed its newly elected officers at a meeting February 26. The new officers are Bert McCowin, president; Bob Hansen, vice president; Bill Grandy, secretary, and Jerry Morgan, treasurer.

McCowin has served the Vet's Club for four semesters and was also a member of the Viking Student Council last semester. He is also a recipient of the Life-Time Student Activities Card. This award has been made to only 47 people throughout the history of the college.

Bob Hansen is from Pittsburg and was a member of the United States Marine Corps for four years.

He is a business major and plans to transfer to San Jose State in the fall.

Bill Grandy of Walnut Creek is in his second semester at the college and Jerry Morgan of Martinez, is concluding his last semester at East and will transfer to San Jose also.

H. Russell Griffith, principal planner for Contra Costa County, spoke Monday on "Zoning and Permit Procedures, including Recent Changes" at a breakfast meeting of the Contra Costa Real Estate Board.

COUNTRY GIRL

The "Chemise" parade is on!

Top designers love the Chemise look, and are doing wonders with it.

Better dress houses are concentrating on their output of new Chemise fashions.

Buyers throughout the country are enthusiastic about them.

But the proof of the pudding—well, the women who wear them are simply thrilled. The new styles are so fresh, so becoming, so free. They find in them a relaxed easy feeling, a fluid flow of movement that charms the wearer and the observer as well.

COUNTRY GIRL, Broadway's fashion specialty store, is the place to see all the new Chemise designs . . . to find out what is happening to the evasive waistline.

There are so many variations—the coat shift that buttons down the front, hinting subtlely at a curvacious waistline, free as a breeze—the billow-back shift, leashed in front by a belt, snug to the feel but so relaxed to the look—the split-level shift, featuring a clipped loose-fitting jacket over a camisole dress with slim shirt—the style with the bloused top that converges into a dropped hip band, and slinks the rest of the way to the shorter hemline—the Blouson style, typified by the LANZ ORIGINAL of imported silk, pictured on another page.

There is a Chemise fashion for every figure. Come into COUNTRY GIRL today, and try them. Let us help find the style just right for you.

A FOUR-BUTTON IVY league stripe coat by Robin Reed, charcoal flannel ivy slacks, a cotton broadcloth shirt with a silk tie in the new narrow width and an ivy league hat is all that Stan Soder needs to be "The Well-Dressed Man." Grodin's, of Broadway, features this apparel.

Commissioners Chosen for School Vacancies

East Contra Costa Junior College Viking Council members recently approved appointments of Bonnie McClennan, Mike Blodgett, and Jim Taylor to fill vacant council positions.

McClennan, frosh from Danville, will be commisioner of rallies which was uncontested in the recent election.

Blodgett, a Danville soph, will replace Dick Allen as commissioner of inter-collegiate athletics. He has been an active participant in athletics at East Contra Costa for several years and was a first string member on the Viking Grid team in 1956 and '57. He will transfer to San Francisco State College where he plans to major in physical education.

Taylor, a sophomore from Martinez, iwll replace Hans DeGraef as commissioner of constitutions and elections. He has been an active member of the Political Science Club on campus and has had much experience in the field of student government. He is a Political Science major and plans to transfer to the University of California for his upper - division work.

Enrichment Program Discussed

Acalanes District trustees and members of the district's administrative staff met last week at the regular board meeting to discuss enrichment of the school curriculum, especially for those students in the top ten per cent, academically. The recent tax limit election was not part of the agenda which had been set prior to the election date.

The board and the staff discussed the possibility of making more courses available to students who are competent enough to handle wider learning experiences, and the progress of the district's current pilot project on accelerated science and math instruction.

A pilot project planned in the 1956-57 school year and put into effect in the current academic year, effective last September, allows competent students the chance to finish the regular high school science-math program by their junior year so that they can devote their senior science-math study to special projects.

Although studies of comparisons between Acalanes District student science-math involvement show that the local high schools are well above national averages in student participation and the types of number of science-math instruction provided, trustees have been interested in accelerated learning situations for exceptional students who can go beyond regular high school offerings.

Trustees and the administrative staff also discussed foreign language instruction. Concensus of the discussion was that rather than enlarge on foreign language offerings (which now include German, Spanish, French and Latin), the program in foreign languages should intensify its attention in the languages now being taught.

Bank Women Tour Antioch PG&E Plant

A tour of the Antioch PG & E Plant Tuesday evening by representatives of the Women's Commitee of the Mt. Diablo Chapter of the American Institute of Banking, began a series of industrial tours called "Industry on Parade."

The power plant in Antioch has five main generators with a generating capacity of 575,000 kilowatts. The first three units went on the line in 1951 and the second two units in 1953, at a cost of $80,000,000. Employment average is 110; however, the actual number of operating employees is ten.

Women from this area who made the tour were Mrs. Sue Layfield, Bank of America, Pleasant Hill, Mrs. Sonia Williams, Bank of America, Lafayette, Mrs. Florence Chericoni, Bank of America, Walnut Creek, Miss Janet Emerson, Amercian Trust Company, Orinda, Mrs. June Woehrman, Amercian Trust Company, Walnut Creek and Mrs. Lucille Raven, Crocker Angolo Bank, Walnut Creek.

School People Attend Confabs

Three members of the Contra Costa County School Department attended national education meetings in San Francisco during the week-end.

County Superintendent B. O. Wilson participated in a panel discussion of adult education and Assistant County Superintendent Harold Kaar in a panel on competence in the three R's today as compared with former years, at a regional meeting of the American Association of School Administrators.

Dr Floyd I. Marchus, research director, attended the annual conference of the California Educational Research Association, of which he is secretary-treasurer.

Scout Shows Will Begin On April 26

John Youmans, Director of Program for The Mt. Diablo Council, Boy Scouts of America, which includes all of Contra Costa County, has announced that the Annual Scout Expositions will be held throughout the Council territory during April.

The Expositions will feature various displays and demonstrations of Cubbing, Scouting and Explorer skills.

"More than 21,000 boys representing over 400 community institutions will participate in the activity," Youmans said.

Shows will also be held on April 26 at the Pleasant Hill Intermediate School, Mt. Diablo High School in Concord, Miramonte High School gym, Orinda and the Las Lomas High School gym in Walnut Creek.

Tickets to be sold by boys in uniform and priced at 50c each, are on sale throughout the Council area.

Children under 14 will be admitted free if accompanied by parents.

Booklets Tell How to Discover Cancer, Early

Regular health checkups are helpful in detecting early cancer, it was stated today by Dr. A. R. Reinke, president of the American Cancer Society's Contra County Branch.

He said the Society is offering a free 24-page booklet describing the basic steps of a physcial examination designed to detect early cancer. It is called "Give Your Doctor a Chance."

For most individuals, Reinke pointed out, a checkup is painless and relatively brief, but it is easily capable of saving one's life.

"A doctor looks for many things besides the common danger signals that anyone can detect in himself," Dr. Reinke said.

But when cancer is suspected, he commented, only a biopsy can establish positive diagnosis of the disease. The biopsy procedure calls for the removal of a tiny piece of tissue and its examination under a microscope by a pathologist.

"When cancer is present the patient's chances are best if it is detected before it begins to spread," Reinke declared. "That is why regular checkups are so important in the fight against disease."

He said free copies of "Give Your Doctor a Chance" may be obtained by calling the Amercian Cancer Society's Contra Costa County Branch at YE 4-7640.
